SCOOBY-DOO™ HITS THE JACKPOT

Or is it the king pot?

Because Scooby-Doo™, Shaggy™ and the gang take on a ghost-like gigantic lung on horseback that is haunting the world-famous Las Vegas strip in Scooby-Doo™ #13, on stands right now!

It's a wild ride through the casinos, hotels and attractions of Vegas as the teenage detectives try to solve the mystery of a lifetime! It's devils, ghosts and zany kids running wild!

FLINTSTONES GO TO CAMP!

Fred and Barney figured camping would be the perfect way to enjoy a summer vacation.

Wrong!

It's a riot of laughs and a trail of madcap dangers as The Flintstones® take "A Crash Course in Camping" in this month's issue, The Flintstones® #14, already in stores. This one's not to be missed.

Dear H-B Comic News:

I love your H-B comics! They're great! My favorite characters are Scooby-Doo and The Jetsons. I'm so glad that you had A Pup Named Scooby-Doo in his own book. I have a dog named Scooby but he's very different. My Scooby is a small beagle and is a girl.

Peter Placyk, Runnemede, NJ

(Peter, Scooby-Doo absolutely beamed when we told him about your naming your pup Scooby. "R'm riled" were, in fact, his exact words. By the way, look for a very special Scooby adventure in the near future when Scooby-Doo meets the crew from Gilligan's Island!)

Dear H-B Comic News:

I think that Scooby-Doo comics are the best. Will Scrappy-Doo be in every issue? Is Scooby's dumb cousin going to be in any? Are Scooby's parents going to be in any? Does Scooby have brothers or sisters or aunts and uncles or grandparents who will be in the comics? Will Scooby-Doo retire and get married? Will anybody quit the gang? Will there be any new people in the gang? Will anything happen to people in the group? Will you come out with a game with Scooby and his friends where you have to solve the mystery?

Karyn Orrico, Greenwich, CT

(Karyn, no, yes, maybe, yes, who knows, perhaps or perhaps not, who can say, yes, possibly ... and thanks.)

Dear H-B News:

I would like to comment on Scooby-Doo #10. It had great art and a mystery I couldn't solve. I have a few suggestions. How about if Scooby meets Astro from The Jetsons? And how about some double or giant-sized issues of Scooby-Doo?

Ryan Jacobson, Deerfield, IL

(Ryan, thanks for the kind words and wait'll you see the next issue of Scooby! The idea of meeting Astro sounds good if you can figure out a way to make a time machine. Maybe we ought to make a giant-sized issue of Scooby. What do the rest of you think?)

Dear H-B Comic News:

I read your Scooby-Doo comic and it's cool ... way nipi! So will you put The Impossibles in their own ongoing monthly series? Thank you.

Willie Vineyard, Broken, OK

(Willie, look for H-B Presents #8 featuring Frankenstein Jr. and The Impossibles. Who knows, if it sells off the shelves as we hope, there could be a regular ongoing book in the offing.)

Dear H-B Comic News:

Oh, does Scooby-Doo #10 bring back memories! Dan Spigle also drew other Hanna-Barbera characters like Funky Phantom and Amazing Chris and The Chan Clan. Dan did his best work with Scooby and the Gang. I know Mark and Dan are busy on another Scooby-Doo story, but how about them doing three or four issues per year?

Jacob Gilbert, Troy, NY

(Jacob, the second Spigle Evanier Scooby story will appear as issue #14 and there is still a third one in the works. Well, perhaps you'll get your wish after all.)

Dear H-B Comic News:

Mark Evanier and Dan Spigle haven't lost touch. Scooby-Doo #10 was a superb issue. What I've always liked about Mark's Scooby stories in the past is how tight knit he makes Scooby and the gang. It transcends the fact that they are cartoon characters and it makes them more believable. Dan Spigle's art perfectly compliments Mark's stories as they have in the past. (What tickles me even more is that in an early Evanier-Spigle story, Velma, one of my favorite H-B gals, and I share the same horoscope sign - Virgo! Till Shaggy shaves his beard, keep up the good work!

Christopher Cook, Atlanta, GA

(Christopher, and even beyond! Thanks to all of you who have hailed the Evanier-Spigle return to Scooby-Doo. As we've said, issue #14 also features an Evanier-Spigle story and still a third story is in the works as we write.)

Dear H-B Comic News:

I'm 20 years old and a real fan of H-B cartoons. It's a real treat to buy the comics each month. Could you please put Daphne on Scooby-Doo covers more often? Thanks!

Alan Quilliam,
Laval, Quebec, Canada

(Alan, we'd be delighted!)

Dear H-B Comic News:

I have a two year old daughter who'll be three in August. She just loves Scooby-Doo. I've looked everywhere and can't find anything Scooby-Doo. Can you help me? We were lucky to find a comic. By the way, her name is Teresa.

Teresa McCall, Brimley, MI

(Teresa and Lena, thanks for your support and interest in Scooby and we do hope you enjoy those comics. We would suggest that you visit your local comic book shop and ask them. They usually stock other merchandise pertaining to comic heroes. Maybe some of our friends out there have some ideas. Send any thoughts you might have to us and we'll be glad to print them.)

Dear H-B Comic News:

My name is Elizabeth Hundley and I love your H-B Comics, especially your Scooby-Doo comics. I was wondering if you will ever have a Penelope Pitstop comic because she's one of my favorites of all the H-B toons. Keep up the good work!

Elizabeth Hundley, Rosedale, NY

(Elizabeth, the latest comic featuring Penelope Pitstop is Hanna-Barbera Presents #7: Wacky Races. I'm sure there will be more. Thanks for asking.)
